

Generic Report Card Comments

RELIGION AND FAMILY LIFE

Strengths:

Knowledge

- is actively engaged in learning the content of this course
- understands the importance of acceptance and trust in ourselves, friends and family members
- is able to describe the stages of human development and personal growth
- is aware that the gospel calls us to respond to social justice issues

Skills

- has played a leadership role in preparing/presenting prayer/liturgy
- volunteers to participate in the preparation and celebration of liturgies
- participates enthusiastically in the celebration of liturgies
- engages enthusiastically in community service

Values

- demonstrates respect for the dignity and value of others
- shows respect and concern for all forms of creation
- contributes actively to school/class community
- assumes an active role in peace making and reconciliation within the class/school community
- respects his/her own uniqueness as a gift from God
- recognizes the sacredness of human life
- is developing self-confidence, self-acceptance and self-respect as well as respect for others
- shows care and concern for others
- is active in class or school social justice projects

Weaknesses:

Knowledge

- experiences difficulty understanding/applying some/most of the content of the course
- experiences difficulty understanding the importance of making and upholding commitments

Skills

- rarely contributes to small group/classroom activities
- reluctantly participates in class discussions
- reluctantly participates in the celebration of liturgies
- reluctantly engages in community service

Values

- rarely contributes to the school/class/community/group projects

Next Steps for Growth

- is encouraged to
- is advised to
- is invited to