

Amazing Animals Quiz

Date: _____

Name: _____

PART A: True or False

Good Luck!

Directions: Check (√) the correct answer.

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| 1. Amphibian means “both sides of life”. | True ___ False ___ |
| 2. Vertebrates are animals that do not have backbones. | True ___ False ___ |
| 3. Invertebrates are animals without backbones. | True ___ False ___ |
| 4. Insects have 4 body parts. | True ___ False ___ |
| 5. Mammals are cold-blooded. | True ___ False ___ |

PART B: Read the story and fill in the blanks.

Mammals

Mammals have backbones. They are called _____. All mammals breathe air with their _____.

All mammals are _____. _____ are water mammals.

Mammals usually live on _____.

vertebrates lungs invertebrates gills warm-blooded dolphins frogs land Mars cold-blooded

PART C: Fill in the blanks with the correct answer.

1. Insects have a hard protective _____.
2. A housefly is an _____.
3. Insects go through life cycle changes called _____.
4. Amphibians _____ when it is too hot or too cold.
5. A salamander is an example of an _____.
6. A carnivore is an animal that eats _____.
7. A fish has a _____.
8. Birds are _____.
9. Most reptiles live on _____.
10. Crocodiles are examples of _____.

- metamorphosis
- shell
- vertebrates
- amphibian
- warm-blooded
- meat
- insect
- hibernate
- backbone
- reptiles
- land

PART D: Place the following animals in the correct category.

wolf alligator salamander frog owl
 jaguar bee butterfly turtle goldfish

Mammals	Reptiles	Fish	Amphibians	Birds	Insects